Maria Oliveira's Language Immersion Programs

Enjoy daily classroom instruction and lively interactions with locals during cultural and historical tours. Trips to the Azores use modern, convenient accommodations, include four islands, and attendance at special festivals and other unique events. In Mexico students stay in comfortable, convenient hotels near the beach, enjoy boat tours of Nayarit, and visit small, friendly villages to practice their new conversational abilities. The formal language classes in both programs provide professional instruction by native speakers; classes are small and focused for individual attention and also to encourage confidence when conversing with shopkeepers, neighbors, and restaurant staff. Whether dining, shopping, or touring, students learn about culture and customs while honing their language skills. An enjoyable learning experience in beautiful surroundings; plan to join us soon.
